

I live in a n area where not many regular radio stations tune in. I also commute to work which means I have to be half way to work before I get accurate traffic reports. Having XM in my home helps me take the best route to work. I was late allthe time before I got XM.
Please leave XM alone. Find somewhere else to focus your attention and greed.

Amy Beecroft
Proud and Free American